Could I please have my receipt?

Could I please have some carnations?

Excuse me, sir, could I please have an autograph?

Actually, that's exactly what I think.

That's kind of why I came to see you, actually.

Sir, I have more money actually.

Look, Kevin, uh, that's actually why I'm here.

I actually like crying sometimes. It feels good.

Ladies and gentlemen, please, may I have your attention?

May I have your ticket, please?

May I have the password, please?

Please give me a call, okay?

Give me a call when you get this.

I'll talk to you later, sweetheart.

I'll talk to my boss.

Come on, I'll buy you lunch.

Come inside, I'll buy you a drink.

How do you know my name?

How do you know about this?

How do you know my name?

And how do you know this man?

How do you know I'm not a god?

I'm sorry I didn't know you were here.

I didn't know you were up.

I didn't know you could fly a plane.

I didn't know you were working.

I'm fine, by the way.

My name's Clementine, by the way.

By the way, this is a friend of mine, Tree.

I'd like to speak with Thomas Kennedy.

I'd like to hear more about it.

Yes, I'd like to talk to you.

We should get together, talk politics sometime.

So, we should get together.

Oh, we have to get together this summer.

Welcome to the Ocean Club, sir. Checking in?

I'm checking in, Barton Fink.

Are you checking in, sir? No, no. I don't check in.

How are you doing? Terrific.

How are you doing? What time is it?

Good. I'm good. How are you doing?

Don't I know your face from some place?

Wait a minute. Don't I know you from somewhere?
